The Haverty Family Scholarship Guidelines & Application

In December 2000, Michael and Marlys Haverty created the Haverty Family Scholarship Fund for Maur Hill Prep School students. The intent was to offer financial assistance to families who wanted their sons to attend Maur Hill Prep. The scholarship pays full tuition for the year and is renewable for up to four years. In 2003, due to the merger and the formation of Maur Hill – Mount Academy, Mr. and Mrs. Haverty agreed to extend the scholarship to include girls.

Each year 4 scholarship are awarded to incoming 9th grade students. As it is a renewable scholarship, there are 16 students in all supported by the Haverty Family Scholarship. Following are guidelines and requirements for eligible candidates:

- Must be an incoming 9th grade day student
- From the Atchison area (Missouri residents)
- Accepted to MH-MA for the fall semester
- Financial need
- Student must maintain a “C” average
- Awards to be made regardless of race, creed, or religion

The scholarships will automatically be renewable each year provided the student is active in and out of the classroom, maintains no less than a “C” average and embraces the mission of the school; Live the Faith, Pursue the Truth, Strive for Excellence.
